AED Seeks Participants for 2016 Community Survey

(ALBUQUERQUE) – Albuquerque Economic Development, Inc. (AED), is seeking participants for its annual Community Survey. The survey, which can be taken anonymously, quantifies local businesses by industry type and corresponding jobs by full-time positions.

Participants may access the survey by visiting AED's website. Respondents will receive a copy of AED's 2016 Business Community Industry Report, which will be published this fall. This report will highlight the Albuquerque metro area's economic base businesses and showcase how these companies are positively impacting the community.

Responses to AED surveys support AED's recruiting activities to bring new employers to the Albuquerque region. AED provides research and data – including the results from the Community Survey – to companies interested in understanding the operating climate within the Albuquerque metro area.

Some examples of the assistance AED provides to companies considering locating in the metro area include industry sector reports and workforce analysis; community overview and demographic data analysis; and responses to requests for proposals from site selection consultants, corporate real estate professionals and company decision makers.
